Safeguarding Policy

1. Bridgwater and Albion Rugby Football Club (B&ARFC) acknowledges its responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children involved in B&ARFC from harm.
2. B&ARFC confirms that it adheres to the Rugby Football Union's Safeguarding Policy and the procedures, practices and guidelines and endorse and adopt the Policy Statement contained in that document and any successor policy.
3. A child is anyone under the age of eighteen engaged in any rugby union activity. However, where a 17-year-old male player is playing in the adult game it is essential that every reasonable precaution is taken to ensure his safety and wellbeing are protected. There are requirements that are needed to ensure this process is safe via the Safeguarding CB.
  - a. The Key Principles of the RFU Safeguarding Policy are that:
  - b. The welfare of the child is, and must always be, paramount to any other considerations.
  - c. All participants regardless of age, gender, ability or disability, race, faith, culture, size, shape, language, or sexual identity have the right to protection from abuse or harm.
  - d. All allegations or suspicions of abuse, neglect, harm, and poor practice will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly, fairly, and appropriately.
  - e. Working in partnership with other organisations, statutory agencies, parents, carers, children, and young people is essential for the welfare of children.
  - f. Children have a right to expect support, and personal and social development delivered by an appropriately recruited, vetted, and managed in relation to their participation in rugby union, whether they are playing, volunteering, or officiating in the community or professional areas of the sport.

6. B&ARFC will implement and comply with the RFU Code of Conduct and the Codes of Conduct for Coaches, Spectators and Officials as appropriate.

They will then inform the CB Safeguarding Manager and the RFU Safeguarding Team. If an incident involves the Club Safeguarding Officer, you should inform Chairman Steve Smith and either the CB Safeguarding Manager or the RFU Safeguarding Team.
